EXPORTS

SINCE 1913,

The DeLong Co., Inc. has been committed to serving the agricultural community by providing superior products and services from expert staff. We're not just another grain company — we are a family-owned business with a six-generation tradition of investing in the future of agriculture, in order to bring the newest technologies and efficiencies to our customers.

Agricultural Products

Our agricultural export division offers an extensive commercial feed, and grain program, making us an industry leader in agricultural exports and the largest U.S. exporter of containerized agricultural exports.

In 2023, our first Bulk Export Vessel Terminal opened in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, allowing us to ship bulk agricultural products and reach new markets. We're a full-service supplier, with an expert logistic team and efficient network in place to fulfill orders of any size - around the world.

Our new Agricultural Maritime Export Facility is capable of handling a variety of grains and feedstuffs. This facility is capable of vessels between 8,000 - 22,000 metric tons.
